DEMONSTRATION
TUESDAY THE 13TH
OF MARCH
MELODY ROOM
7.30PM-9.00PM
TARA WINONA

Tara Winona's art celebrates a love affair with nature. "My art is an invitation to connect ... with nature, to each other and with the deepest, truthful essence of ourselves". Animal portraits emerge from swirls of inks and watercolour, emotions and memories cascade until the boundaries between creature and artist become blurred. Her paintings of wildlife become self-portraits, a vehicle to tell a story. Working with a minimal colour palette, Tara seeks beauty in simplicity, leaving space for the imagination, she paints with watercolour and acrylic ink on large canvases.

Tara has an extensive list of past exhibitions - she is represented by several galleries in the UK, Australia and has exhibited in the UK, the Netherlands and Sydney. She now splits her time between her studio at the Headland Artists' Precinct in Mosman, and on Johnsons Island in London.

Doors open from
7.00 for refreshments
Demonstration from

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS WITH THEIR SUCCESS STORIES:

Shelly Du's painting "Timeless" (left) won the Very Highly Commended in the water medium section and "Beach" is the finalist for the 9 by 5 paintings section in the 28th Annual Art of Sydney exhibition at the Maritime Museum

Steve Jannar is not new to winning prize after prize. Congratulations on your recent achievement. Steve humbly says, "I didn't win "Best in Show" this time at the CASS exhibition, but I did win the main "Oil or Acrylic painted as oil" section - judged by Kasey Sealy on Sunday.

Lady Northcott Sydney Ferry, Circular Quay (above) that won the major prize best in "Oil or Acrylic painted as Oil".

Our dear friend Rosemary Christmas has an In Profile exhibition at the Mosman Art Gallery, "Beyond" Rosemary has held an interest in eastern spirituality. She has created a series of mixed media works Rosemary combines patterns and colour to take us beyond the natural world.

Congratualtions Rosemary.

Jan Hook is part of the Norh Sydney multi venue exhibition The Red Project. It opens on the 3rd of March, more details on flyer on following pages.

The 2088 Exhibition was a great success and a wonderful show, MAS boasts 47 of the artists, well done everyone. Please remember that collection of paintings starts from 3pm - 6pm Sunday the 4th and on Monday 6th from 10-5pm.
