About GUY TROUGHTON.....

Guy Troughton painted his first bird at four years of age and hasn't stopped since. After completing a zoology degree in London, Guy began to illustrate and paint full-time. Renowned for his exquisite watercolours, Guy's award-winning work has been published in countless natural history publications and his beautiful wildlife paintings are held in collections around the world. Guy's paintings have been hung in many high profile art exhibitions such as the Blake Prize, The Mosman Art Prize, and the Salon des Refusés, and he is a member of the prestigious Australian Watercolour Institute. A well-known local artist, Guy runs regular watercolour classes in Seaforth where he shares his love of painting and art.
